AUTHENTIC PORTRAYAL OF THE WWII GERMAN INFANTRY SOLDIER

Normandie '44

Be a part of our premier Living History group!

GR916 aims to portray the German soldier of World War Two to the highest levels of authenticity and to provide an environment to further research into the uniforms, equipment and lives of the 'Landser'.

With that aim in mind, the group achieved one of its major goals and highlights of 30 years of living history. At the invitation of the Luxembourg government, GR916 took 22 men to the Ardennes to take part in 60th Anniversary commemoration events in the same area as GR916 fought in 1944/45. Back in the UK, many high profile organisations such as Event Plan and Bovington Tank Museum have hired the WWII LHA knowing they can rely on consistent quality.

GR916 is one unit within the WWII Living History Association. The association comprises British, American and German units; of which GR916 was a founding unit. The WWII LHA was formed in 1978 as the WWII Battle Re-enactment Association (WWII BRA) but later became WWII LHA.
